

DOUGLAS REYNOLDS GALLERY

DWAYNE SIMEON
KWA-KIULTH WHALES

$700.00 CAD

Height	22"
Width	15"
Medium	Gouache on Paper

Available Framed for $1000

Killer Whales are widely considered clan ancestors. Living in human form in undersea villages, killer whales are often thought to be the reincarnations of great chiefs and are associated with wealth, unity and travel. Some prominent characteristic traits of Killer Whale are a rounded snout, blowhole, a dorsal fin, pectoral fins and a tail.