In the artist's own words:

This piece is one that is very dear to my heart. It is meant to depict the seen and unseen forces and energies that encircle the globe. I am a watcher of this as now great satellite loops are available in live time, I can look above my head and see the weather in both perspectives. Changes that happened on one part of the planet come to affect those on the other side. I have learned that I have to pray for understanding. My animal being brothers and sisters need to know my heart and intentions. The judgemental system in our brains needs to be subdued and the Spirit released.
